

Harriet Turk

Our speaker today comes to us from Memphis, Tennessee. For the past 22 years, Harriet Turk has worked with thousands of people encouraging them to develop their leadership skills, find their personal power and to live a healthy lifestyle.

She earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in Criminal Justice, and has worked as a probation officer, youth programs coordinator and national traffic safety consultant.

Harriet believes we can create positive change in our friends, our communities and ourselves. Today, she will encourage us to reach out to others and make a difference.

Now, please help me welcome, Harriet Turk!
